Notes:

<sup>1</sup> Federal unemployment insurance claimants whose last week of benefits was the week ending December 28th.

<sup>2</sup> These columns represent the cumulative impact of the loss of federal unemployment insurance benefits through the week ending February 1, including the initial 1.3 million claimants cut off on December 28th, plus an additional 72,000 claimants who will be denied access to the federal program each week after exhausting state unemployment insurance benefits.

<sup>3</sup> Estimates exclude North Carolina where federal unemployment insurance benefits ended in July 2013 as a result of changes to state law.
